

When you need an expert, reliable and trustworthy source for all of your flooring needs, look no further than Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. Located in Platte City, Missouri, this homegrown family business has been a highly-respected leader in the flooring industry since 1987.

Founded and overseen by Randy Wilson, Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. proudly serves North Kansas City, Missouri and its surrounding areas. Because these experts understand that flooring is one of the most important aspects of your home's interior, they go to great lengths to ensure the best in quality, selection and service. As specialists in a wide variety of carpet, vinyl, natural stone, tile, laminate, hardwood flooring and cork, Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. has practically everything your floors could want within their spacious showroom, with copious samples from which to choose. And if they don't have what you are looking for, they can most likely find it for you.

Working with new home construction and home remodeling projects, as well as with some commercial projects, Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. also provides superior design services with its in-house designer. "For new home customers, we help with selections in interior and exterior colors, counter tops and more," stated Aubrie Weed, manager. "For those people who struggle with visualizing a certain look and putting it all together, we are there to assist and make them feel comfortable with their selections."

And for the products they don't provide, Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. gladly acts as a resource for customers and will always ensure the best in quality and value.

"Because we live in this community, we want to be of service to the people who live here, and that means considering what products we would actually want in our own homes and asking specific questions of our customers to fully understand their needs and lifestyles," explained Weed.

Weed also emphasized the importance of asking as many questions as possible when it comes to choosing floor covering and other design products for your home.

"Always ask questions and don't assume anything," she expressed. "It's okay to ask how something will be installed or if a seam will run a certain way. You can never ask too many questions, and we are more than happy to assist."

Because Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. adheres to a high standard of quality, customers know they are receiving proper materials installed by some of the most experienced tradesmen in the industry who are fully bonded and insured.

"Our installers are our employees, not strangers," indicated Weed, emphasizing they know their craft from the inside out and do the work to even head off potential problems in advance, which translates to proper installation, such as using grout with a built-in sealer so it won't wear off.

Their work doesn't end after the installation, either.

"We stand behind our quality materials and installation and provide a warranty for our products and services," said Weed.

Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. provides free estimates with no obligation to buy and customers are invited to browse their showroom for samples, pictures and idea books.

"Although we do stock a few carpet and tile products, most of our materials are ordered for the customer," said Weed.

Known for complete transparency, honesty and fairness, Wilson's Floor Covering, Inc. prices everything together, including the padding and sales tax. In other words, there are no surprises.

"We think of how we like to shop," smiled Weed. "We approach each project as if it was our very own and honor the people who let us in their homes." ■
