

What began as a builder supply store has seamlessly transformed into a wildly popular and sought after location for walk-in customers, as well. Nearly bursting at the seams with a vast selection of products, Locks and Pulls also boasts a knowledgeable, professional and helpful staff.

Serving the community for 35 years, Locks and Pulls offers the finest decorative hardware from some of the world's best vendors and most innovative manufacturers.

"What sets us apart is the amount of inventory we carry and have on hand," emphasized owner John Hensley. "We have almost 1,500 selections of cabinet knobs or pulls in multiple finishes in stock. We also have about 50 options of door hardware in stock to choose from."

Whether a builder, remodeler or simply a walk-in customer, Locks and Pulls offers an impressive selection of components sourced from vendors around the world. From upscale parts to bargain deals, customers can find nearly everything they might need. Among the most notable upscale brands include Rocky Mountain Hardware, Ashley Norton, and Sun Valley, which offer solid bronze pieces; Emtek, and Classic Brass, a new vendor of solid brass door and cabinet hardware made in New York.

"We constantly have to be on top of our inventory and strive to have most of the on-trend products," stated Hensley, whose store is constantly populated with new items and products from new vendors.

With presumably the largest selection in the Midwest, you never know what you might find. Even in the "bargain basement" row of products, treasures can be found.

"We have banks of old inventory that we typically sell for a dollar a piece," said Hensley.

No matter your needs when it comes to locks and drawer pulls, Hensley will find a way to make something happen.

Unaccustomed to saying "no" to customers, the Locks and Pulls team of professionals will endeavor to find exactly what you need. Attention to detail and exceptional customer service have become the hallmarks of this company.

In addition to the thousands of door locks and drawer pulls available at Locks and Pulls, customers can also find other hardware needs, such as door stops, closet and shelving hardware and a wide variety of latches. For the right tools to complete your project, a visit to Locks and Pulls can help you get the job done.

While there are always myriad finish and style trends, what Hensley sees more of today is the desire for more contemporary looks than in the past. "We have also seen an increase in demand for black hardware," he indicated.
